

Sandown, Isle of Wight – November 5th – 9th

4 Nights

Your Hotel – Burlington Hotel

We are staying at the Burlington hotel in Sandown. The rooms have TVs and teamaking facilities with en suite bathrooms. Our stay is half-board, so we will have a full English breakfast. Besides an indoor pool there are a bar and a restaurant.

General Holiday & destination description

The Isle of Wight is the largest and one of the most popular islands in England. It has got maritime and industrial tradition and has been home or resort to a range of famous poets and royals. The island offers not only natural beauty but also a large number of other tourist attractions. To name some, there are plenty of piers such as Sandown Pier, zoos, theme parks or abbeys, castles and other witnesses of history.

Outward Journey

We will meet at the Spiral Media Centre in Beveandean at 9am on the morning of Monday 5th November. We travel to our destination by minibus and by ferry.

Outings and days in Sandown

The trip to Sandown, Isle of Wight includes the following outings:

1) A trip to the IoW Zoo. The area which is designed to resemble a Mayan temple is home to plenty of different species with South American or African origin. There are mammals, like monkeys, cats, sloths or anteaters, colourful birds as parrots and toucans, reptiles, fish and even exotic plants.

2) A trip around the Isle of Wight. This is a great opportunity to go shopping and to look for some unique souvenirs.

3) A visit at Monkey Haven, a wildlife park and primate rescue centre. All kinds of monkeys inhabit the centre, gibbons, capuchins, macaques, lemurs and many more. You can also meet birds such as buzzards and various kinds of owls, among them the popular snow owl. There is also an area for some extra special creatures besides monkeys and owls which is inhabited by reptiles and meerkats.

Return Journey

We aim to arrive back at the Spiral Media Centre in Beveandean by 6pm on the evening of Friday 9th December. We will give a ring before our arrival to confirm.
